a social last night.

Governor Gray will attend Hon. Schuyler Colfax's funeral to-day.

The pews of Meridian Street Church were rented last night. A social followed.

The Star City Skating Rink of Lafayette has been incorporated. Capital stock, $5,000.
Miss Clara Badgely, of Terre Haute, has been commissioned by the Governor as a Notary Public.

It is said that a reduction of cigar makers' wages are contemplated by the manufacturers in this city.

Church of the Holy Innocents Sunday morning, and Bishop Knickerbocker in the evening.

Rev. W. T. Franklin, of the Third Baptist Church of Terre Haute, has been called to the pastorate of the new Bethel Baptist Church.

The Supreme Court docket is as nearly cleared as it can be under the law. A new bill is to be presented to the Legislature providing that the clerk may submit cases within fifteen days after notice has been served; or if appeal is taken and forfeited in term time, within ten days after record has been made in the Supreme Court.

The Central Chair Company has elected officers for the ensuing year. The capital stock is to be increased, and a three story block is to be erected.

Charles Crocker, the engineer who was killed at Earl Park, on the Big Four Road, has been taken to Hagerstown for burial, instead of being brought to this city.

M. O'Connor and Severin, Ostermeyer & Co. have purchased the Morrison Block, north-east corner of Maryland and Meridian streets for $50,000. It belonged to the estate of W. H. Morrison, deceased.

Dr. Elder insists that pleuro-pneumonia does exist among the cattle of Illinois, Ohio and Kentucky, and thinks the Legislature should pass a law to prevent it from entering this State. He has the highest authority of the country for this.

The Aldermanic Hospital Board visited the City Hospital yesterday to see whether or not it would be admissible to put in steam heaters. They decided affirmatively. Several firms made bids for the contract, but no action has been taken yet.

Ross Clark has submitted it as his opinion to Sheriff Carter that "Squire Peace" is not legally a Peace Justice, and that Judkins succeeded Peace. The opinion was accompanied with the advice not to receive prisoners from "Squire Peace's Court.

THE ROBBERY RECORD.

A Stone Jar an Unsafe Repository—A Stolen Ring Recovered.

A lady's gossamer, found by the police on South Meridian street night before last, is awaiting an owner at the Central Station.

Charles L. Lusher, Arthur Lafontaine and Edwin Myers, charged with the theft of a number of chickens, were brought in by the police yesterday afternoon.

Fred Williams and Joseph Franklin were looked up by Patrolmen Schwab and Hines, on a charge of petit larceny. They are accused of having nipped a quantity of feathers from Doris' show-cars which are standing on the sidetracks near the rolling mill.

Charles Gilleland was looked up at the Central Station by Captain Colbert yesterday, on a charge of grand larceny. Charlie, it is alleged, saw Mrs. Daniel Connel drop a pocketbook, containing $30, on Washington street, near East, and picked it up when she was out of sight. Nearly all of the money was recovered.

Patrolman Bruce yesterday afternoon recovered the $65 ring which was stolen, with other pieces of jewelry, from Mrs.
Jeffries, the actress, by Ira Miles, now in jail on a charge of grand larceny. The ring was in the possession of a bootblack who says he found it in an alley near the Zoo, where Miles claimed he lost it.

An old farmer named John Hayes, residing near Zionsville, reported at the Central Station yesterday that he had been robbed of $2,000, the money being in silver and gold.
The money was in an old crock which was buried beneath the smoke-house, and a few evenings since his wife dreamed that the lid had been removed from this crock. The next day the couple investigated, and sure enough, the lid had been removed and all of the money taken. The old man said that he had been reading in the New York papers about "Old Sleuth" and "Young Ironsides," and thought if he could get one of these celebrated detectives to work on the case he would soon recover the money. Turnkey Clark informed the old gentleman that each of these detectives, who exist only in the minds of a large portion of the readers of trashy literature, had relatives on the Indianapolis police force who would work the case up for him, and the farmer returned home in an easy frame of mind. The robbery will be investigated at once.

SLIPS AND FALLS.

The icy Weather Gets in Its Work on the Pedestrian.

A Mrs. Jackson fell on East Washington street and broke her arm. She is eighty-three years of age.

Samuel Foreman had a serious fall yesterday afternoon, resulting in a severe gash in his chin and several minor bruises. His injuries were dressed at the Central Station.

Mrs. Tarleton, the Female Reformatory Matron, fell yesterday in front of Harry Craft's jewelry store, and broke her right leg above the ankle. She was taken away in Kregelo & Whitsett's ambulance.

Miss Flora Stratford, daughter of Coroner Stratford, fell yesterday morning near Roberts Park Church, while on her way to school. She fell on the curbing and out a small deep gash above the right eye, which was very painful. Dr. Stillson happened to be near at hand at the time, and took Miss Stratford to his residence, where he bandaged her wound.

new temperance organ, and is the outgrowth of the Monitor Journal, with a joint stock corporation to back it, the articles having $15,000, and the object is the teaching of pure and unadulterated temperance principles. The Directors are Preston Rider, Wil-
